1. Minutes from last week	approved	Approved
2. Round-table update	Marc: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Lecture addresses, a lot of engagement from students. - Part of my budget to the WOW initiative, it was done last year and there has been positive feedback saying. A good way of connecting the graduate students.

Shane:

- Emails back from the shops and the student centre about badges as Gaeilge.
- Followed up with a lecturer about the translation of the constitution.

Ryan:

- Volunteered at the freshers tent and the COLC and got to speak to SpunOut about current situations.
- Met with SciSoc about a book exchange scheme for science students.
- Discussed the SciCycle with SciSoc.
- Plans to talk to the SU shops about lab coats for students.

Róisín:

- We have a meeting with Michelle Cohen on Thursday and meeting with Simon and Letizia too to make sure that they know who Caillum and I are.

Robin:

- Met with first years along with Ciara which went well and I am hoping to get a race going for elections.
- Heard back from Woolley Farm about the event on the 10th. I also met up with Emily Gallagher about our plans for mental health week.

Míde:

- Active consent workshops in Science. Contacted clubs and socs about the possibility of running them ahead of any trips.
- HEA funded Together All and we are getting it for free. It is a clinically monitored peer to peer scheme. Having a talk on it next Friday and would like to see it replace SilverCloud.
- We will be getting period products in all buildings. 14 dispensers. 3 in the Library. 2 in the ladies in the student centre and 1 in the gender neutral bathroom and then one in each building.

Ciara:

Freshers week was a big success and I want to thank everyone for taking such an active role. We did a speed-friending event with PolSoc and a few other societies. Tramline Tuesday sold out which was a big thing to hear. We got good feedback and it seemed that everyone enjoyed themselves. The protest went really well and it was great to see the attendance. Met with Tramline about future collaborations. I also had an interview today with a DJ discussing a residency with us.

Sarah:

- Starting to work on the survey for the digital clinical guide and I want to try to promote class rep elections.

Robyn:

- The COLC protest went really well. 20 thousand people were in attendance. The next one is the 12th of November. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Class Rep training is on the 7th and 8th so we really need as many college officers in attendance as possible. Martha: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The HEA bill was passed last week and it is gone through. In it now it states that there are going to be 3 student Union reps on the board. This means that there have to be elected students in attendance. • 1300 ebooks are gone from libraries across Ireland. Doing this once the term has started is detrimental. So I have been working with the Library Association of Ireland and the local Government management agency and Lorna Dodd from the library.

3. Class reps	Class Rep nominations close at 5pm on the 30th. The elections are then on the 4th and 5th and the training is on the 7th and	Plan made to lecture address throughout the week.
