 - Discussion about this

3. Resit and resit fees	There is a review group being set up by the university. What are the thoughts of resit fees? There is not extra services used to do the repeat exam, so are the fees necessary for this? “Failing a module is painful enough without having to pay for it” Consensus to be in favour of abolition of the fees. Sidenote: Trinity discussed a pass by compensation by doing two 5 credit modules rather than having one 10 credit module. So 35% becomes the pass rate.	Consensus to be in favour of abolition of the fees.
4. Mobilise peace	Students have contacted the SU and UMT to want to work with UCD to work on an environmental campaign. There are no terms of reference for the organisation, but there is scope for us to work more on our environmental works. There was a strong idea of embedding climate in the curriculum, which could be like our consent module. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Idea to make a working group instead where their ideas could be taken onboard - Consensus to not sign on formally, but to reflect on our work so far and how we can be better. 	Action point: Consensus to not sign on formally, but to reflect on our work so far and how we can be better.
5. Accommodation Survey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leafletting to happen this week 9-11 and then 5-6 in the evening by the Montrose stop and the - Lecture addressing can be done too - It is open for 4 weeks - Political parties to be invited after 	Action Point: Robyn to send College Officers a list of lectures to address
6. Christmas day	Fill in the Christmas Day form <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 28th of November for the Christmas party
