

About me:

My name is Naomhán Mhaonaigh. I am a final year Social Justice and Sociology student. I have been involved with the Students' Union as a class rep for Social Justice. I have also had a role as part of the Athena Swan review working group and have attended Undergraduate Social Sciences Governing Board meetings.

Why Vote for me?

- I am extremely passionate about making education more accessible for students.
- I have experience in working with academics, policy and students.
- As a youth volunteer I have experience campaigning for positive social change.

My Manifesto

Access

- Address the access barriers such as classism and address the retention of HEAR, DARE, Access, Mature and QQI-FET students
- More quiet spaces and study spaces on campus.
- Fight for an affordable canteen with wide ranging nutritious meals
- Make sensory kits available on loan from the library for students
- Introduce an open access module on academic writing: including essay writing, literature reviews, critical literature reviews
- Subject matching in the Writing Centre to ensure relevant advice can be given

Equity

- Promoting a higher uptake of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) training for staff, sabbats and auditors in collaboration with Access and Lifelong Learning and Teaching and Learning.
- Anti-racism and inclusion training in person, for all students including those joining on study abroad and transferring, twice a year to include second semester study abroad students.

Inclusion

- Survey student body to measure awareness of available supports and see where more awareness is needed
- Adding pronouns to class lists on Brightspace
- More modules available as Gaeilge
- More modules addressing learning for the Sustainable Development Goals in collaboration with Teaching and Learning
